2. The Comptroller while admitting that the jurisdiction of the Field Officers extends, only to the District in which they are working during the Field Season, thinks that it extends over the whole State during the monsoon season and that therefore they are not entitled to exchange the fixed monthly allowances admissible under the ordinary rules. This inference appears unwarranted. During the Monsoon Season, when they are not engaged on field work, the jurisdiction of the Officers in charge of Field Establishments is limited only to the Head-Quarters of the Department (i.e. Bangalore) which is defined in Article 39 of the Service Regulations to be the place where the records of the office are kept.

3. It is for convenience of work that their jurisdiction during the field seasom is considered to extend over the District in which they work. From this, it does not follow that at other times their jurisdiction extends over the whole State. The regulation of their fixed monthly allowance, which is drawn in full when out in camp and in part when at Head-Quarters, is based not upon any consideration of jurisdiction but upon other considerations, a detailed account of which is not necessary here. There have also been precedents, where travelling allowances under the ordinary rules have been claimed and allowed to Officers in charge of Field Establishments for journeys performed performed on duty out of Bangalore during the monsoon season. Under these circumstances, I am unable to agree with the Comptroller, and I hold that the claims of the officers in question are admissible.

4. The matter is not practically of any great importance as such claims from Field Officers in this Department are very rare indeed. As, however, it involves a question of principle I solicit the orders of Government.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

D. Rama Rao.

Memo No. 23 dated 10/11th January 1911, from the Comptroller in Mysore to the Superintendent , Revenue Survey

His No. 428 dated 6-1-11 stating in reply to this office Memo No. 20 dated 22-12-10 that the head quarters of Mr. Darasha at the time he undertook the journey was Bangalore.

With reference to the above observes that he has not replied to the points raised by this office as to whether the period during which Mr. Darasha was absent from Bangalore was the field season and whether his jurisdiction was then limited to Bangalore District alone.

2. The Officers of the Revenue Survey Department are not generally entitled to any travelling allowance for touring within the Province as they are provincial officers and as they draw permanent monthly travelling allowances.

3. As per circular quoted by him in his No. 257 dated 29-10-10 the jurisdiction of the Survey Officer during the field season is the district in which he is serving. Mr. Darasha can exchange his permanent monthly allowance for the regular travelling allowance under article 573 of M.S.R. if he has travelled to Mysore in the field season when alone his jurisdiction can be limited to one district. He is therefore requested to send an early reply to the two querries raised by this office.

Memo No. 25, dated 26/27th January 1911, from the Comptroller, Mysore Government to the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey.

Correspondence ending with his No. 464 dated 18-1-11 re the Jurisdiction of Mr. Darasha in the Monsoon season.

Referring to the above observes that the Departmental circular quoted by him in his No. 257 dated 29-10-10 fixes the Jurisdiction of the Assistant Superintendents Revenue Survey in the field season to be the district in which they are working. It has to be inferred from this that the Jurisdiction of these Officers in the Monsoon season extends over the whole Province. But it is stated in his docket under reply that Mr. Darasha's jurisdiction at the time he went to Mysore- which was not a field season was limited to Bangalore the Head quarters of the Survey Department. He is requested to intimate to this office whether there is any Government Order in support of his view.

Docket No.625 dated 29th March 1911, from the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, to the Comptroller.

--------oOo---------

His Memo No.25 dated 26th January 1911, requesting to be informed whether there is any Government Order in support of the view that during monsoon Bangalore is the head-quarters of officers in charge of Field Establishments.

With reference to the above, has the honor to state that article 39, of the Mysore Service Regulations and Government Order No. Fl.2421-2/S&A.122-63 dated 25th October 1904, fixing the scale of permanent travelling allowance for the Deputy Superintendent and officers in charge of Field Establishments, support the view referred to above. The inference drawn by the Comptroller from the Departmental Circular that the jurisdiction of a Field Officer extends over the whole State during the monsoon, is not correct, so far as the Undersigned can see. The Departmental Circular extends the jurisdiction of a Field Officer to the District in which he is carrying out field operations during the field season, and the reason further is obvious. At other times, the head-quarters of a Field Officer is, under Article 39 of the Service Regulations, the station where the records of his office are kept, Viz, Bangalore, in the case in question.

2. There appear to have been several instances where travelling allowances were claimed and allowed to Officers in charge of Field Establishments during the monsoon season for work done outside Bangalore. When the Undersigned was an Asst. Superintendent, ~~XX XXX~~ in charge of a measuring Establishment, he has drawn travelling allowances for having gone to the Anekal Taluk in connection with the settlement of a boundary dispute, during the monsoon season. The bill for Rs: 16-4-0 was forwarded to the Comptroller for audit with the Deputy Superintendent's letter No. 344 dated 17th August 1892 and was received back duly audited and passed.

S&A 373-10-2 (62)

Letter No.6740/A.C.846 dated 5th May 1911, to the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey.

----------0000----------

Sir,

Adverting to the correspondence ending with your docket No. 625 dated 29th March 1911, I have the honor to state that Article 39 of the Mysore Service Regulations furnishes a general rule by which the Head Quarters of officers are determined, and the word "Head Quarters" used therein is not synonymous with the word "Jurisdiction". Further, Goverment Proceedings No. Fl.2421-2/S&A 122-63 dated 25th October 1904 referred to by you does not also say that the jurisdiction of the Assistant Superintendents, Revenue Survey, during seasons other than Field Seasons is limited to Bangalore.

On the other hand, the inference to be drawn from the circular referred to in your docket No.257 dated 29th October 1910 to this office, which has been approved by Government in their letter No. Fl.4750/S&A 373-10-2 dated 7th March 1911, addressed to you, is that the jurisdiction of the officers of the Survey Department in the monsoon season extends over the whole Province and the fact that these officers draw only the fixed monthly travelling allowance for their journeys from Bangalore to the District where they have field work and back, also strengthens the above view.

For the foregoing reasons, they are, I think, not permitted to exchange their fixed monthly travelling allowance for the travelling allowances admissible under the ordinary rules under Article 573, Mysore Service Regulations.

The travelling allowance bills of Messrs. D.K. Darashah and C. Rajagopalacharlu for their journeys to Mysore and back in June 1910 are therefore returned, unaudited.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

In the concluding sentence of the letter, it is stated that if the officers feel inclined to do so they may prefer a claim under Article 472 of the Service Regulations.
